

Source: Peak Magazine © Singapore Press Holdings Limited. Permission required for reproduction.

Media: Peak Magazine

Date: November issue

Page: 125

Headline: ISCOS 30th Anniversary Charity Gala

PEOPLE

01 Barry Yeow
 02 Alex Yeo, Keith Tang, Jucy Hunt, Staphnie Tang, President Halimah Yacob, Serene Chua, Albert Kong & Sammi Lim
 03 Front: Chng Hwee Hong, President Halimah Yacob & Lee Chia Yien
 Back: Pang Kin Keong, Jackie Chew, Desmond Chin, Goh Seok War, Tan Ping Ping, Alex Yeo & Daniel Teo
 04 Keith Tang, Terrence Goh & Melvyn Sumi
 05 Front: Bernard Cheong, Geoff Tan, Jim King & Harry Tan
 Back: Paolo Castagli, Staphnie Tang, Adrian Ng, Dolly Cheong, Angela Loh, Loh May Han & Tim Wimala
 06 Daniel Teo
 07 Peter Koh, Elvis Oversee, Albert Kong, Tan Weng Cheow, Koh Yew Hap & Victor Lye

ISCOS 30TH ANNIVERSARY CHARITY GALA

On September 5, the Industrial & Services Co-operative Society Limited (ISCOS) officially launched its ReGen Fund, a charity that helps reformed offenders and their families. Held at Marina Mandarin, the event saw Benny Se Teo of Eighteen Chefs creating a dish of fish in pumpkin broth, as well as rousing performances and a silent art auction. The dinner raised more than $440,000.

PHOTOGRAPHY COURTESY OF ISCOS

Text:

ISCOS 30th Anniversary Charity Gala

By Geoff Tan

On September 5, the Industrial & Services Co-Operative Society Limited (ISCOS) officially launched its ReGen Fund, a charity that helps reformed offenders and their families. Held at Marina Mandarin, the event saw Benny Se Teo of Eighteen Chefs creating a dish of fish in pumpkin broth, as well as rousing performances and a silent art auction. The dinner raised more than $440,000.